

18 SEPTEMBER WILDFLOWER AND PLANT ID DAY

MEET: 11am COCOPARRA NATIONAL PARK, STORE CREEK PARKING AREA

Come along to hear from Martin Driver, Project Manager, ANPC about the benefits of retaining native plants, how to identify native plants and how to manage them in the rural and urban landscape. Martin has over 35 years of experience in native vegetation management, plant identification, grazing management and restoration ecology. He will be supported by local plant specialist Eric Whiting who has years of experience, author of Wildflowers of Narrandera and Cocoparra Ranges. (this book can be purchased on the day)

RSVP SEPTEMBER 17 FOR CATERING PURPOSES

ENJOY A WALK IN THE PARK

FREE BARBEQUE AND REFRESHMENTS

BRING ALONG STURDY SHOES, HAT AND PLANTS TO GET IDENTIFIED!

LEARN FROM EXPERIENCED SPEAKERS.

MORE INFORMATION

www.mli.org.au

Kerri Keely

kkeely@mli.org.au

or

0428 396 826

This activity is part of the Local Landcare Coordinators Initiative

Department of Primary Industries
Lands

