

Australian Network for
Plant Conservation Inc

*Corowa District Landcare invites you to join Martin Driver, Project Manager from the Australian Network for Plant Conservation Inc.
as we walk through Redlands Hill Reserve identifying the many wildflowers and native plants that are unique to our local area.*

This will be a great opportunity to see what's flowering in what has been a terrific season.

Date: 9.30am – 1.30pm, Saturday 8th of October, 2016

Venue: Redlands Hill Reserve, Tom Roberts Rd, Corowa NSW 2646

BYO: Chair, water bottle, hat, rain jacket, camera and notebook.

RSVP: Joanne Diver/Judy Kirk at Corowa District Landcare.

Ph 02 6033 1137, corowalandcare2@bigpond.com

All welcome. Lunch provided.

This project is brought to you by Corowa District Landcare Inc., and is supported by the Australian Network for Plant Conservation Inc., with support from the NSW Environmental Trust and Murray Local Land Services through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Programme

Local Land
Services
Murray

Australian Government

National Landcare
Programme

